

FOOTBALL FUNDING WORKSHOP

Are you a club that is starting a new team?

Did you know that you could apply for funding to assist with facility hire, training courses, referee costs...?

The Football Foundation is to re-launch their Community Small Grants Scheme on July 1st 2009. The Small Grants Scheme provides funding for organisations that are looking to increase participation in football activities. For example, a club who is looking to start a new team or coaching centre can obtain funding towards the cost of facility hire, training courses, referee costs, etc

Guy Rippon the Community Programme Manager for the Football Foundation in the West Midlands will be visiting Worcestershire on Thursday 21st May and will be leading a workshop to show potential applicants how to make a successful application. The workshop details are as follows:-

Title:	Community Small Grants Scheme Funding Workshop
Venue:	Worcestershire Football Association, Craftsman House, De Salis Drive, Droitwich, WR9 0QE.
Date:	Thursday May 21st 2009
Time:	7pm
Cost:	Free

This workshop should be of interest to all our clubs particularly in planning for football activity in the 2009/10 season.
