Criminal Records Bureau Checks

The FA's Safeguarding Children Regulation's Section 2 states that anyone who is in a position (or applying to be in a position) that The Association deems relevant whose normal duties include caring for, training, supervising or being in sole charge of children, must comply with the requirements of The Association's CRB process. The first of those requirements under 2(i) is that individual obtains an FA CRB Disclosure. This includes club coaches, managers, and other volunteers. If you are unsure if a club member is eligible for a CRB Disclosure please contact The FA CRB Unit on 0845 210 80 80.

If your club has not completed the necessary FA CRB Disclosures please contact the FA CRB Unit on 0845 210 80 80 to start the process.

At least one person working with every Under 16 team, must be in receipt of either an FA Level 1 Certificate in Coaching Football award as well as a current FA Child Protection certificate and a recognised first aid certificate (see criteria explained).

For adult teams at least one person per team must have a recognised first aid qualification. This must be endorsed by the Health and Safety Executive.

How many volunteers have completed this process via The FA CRB Unit ?

This can be confirmed on the Club Safeguarding Children Report. Details on how to access this service have been sent to the Club Secretary. Where the Club Welfare Officer's record meets set criteria they can request access via the online site. The site is available at www.TheFA.com/footballsafe, or contact The FA CRB Unit by phone, on 0845 210 80 80 or email, crb@TheFA.com for further information.

Please note: You can print off your Club Safeguarding Children report and use it as supporting documentation.
